MAYOR'S REPORT

Mayor Mike Wozniak

SOUTH SUBURBAN LITIGATION

We are disappointed to report that on November 16th the Colorado Supreme Court declined to review the decision of the Colorado Court of Appeals in the South Suburban Park and Recreation District appeal. The effect of the decision is that the Village will pay South Suburban approximately $1.4 million per year through 2019. Because Village residents would have paid South Suburban approximately $2.5 million per year had we remained in the district, the Village has the revenues it needs to continue to maintain its parks and trails to the standard expected by our residents. After the obligation is retired in 2019, taxes paid by residents will be applied exclusively to priorities within Village boundaries.

The decision by the Supreme Court not to review the case means that the sole reason for the award was that the Colorado courts believed it was “fair and equitable” that the Village pay the district to compensate for the district’s loss of revenue for ten years following the exclusion vote. Because the plain language of the statute provides that the Village “shall not be subject to any property tax” levied by the district after exclusion, and because the statute had never been applied to require a municipality to pay a district for loss of future revenues, we were hopeful that the Colorado Supreme Court would review the issue, at least to provide explanation and guidance for other Colorado districts and municipalities. We are disappointed that the Colorado Supreme Court passed on an opportunity to explain the rationale for a judgment that directs residents to pay taxes for the next 10 years to a district to which we no longer belong.

On the positive side, our residents will see no changes as a result of the Supreme Court’s action. During the appellate process, the Village has been setting aside revenues necessary to pay the judgment, and will be able to retire the judgment from existing, expected revenues. The Village will continue to provide our residents better parks and trail maintenance than South Suburban was ever able to provide, and continue to fund our recreational reimbursement program. The effect of the decision will be, however, to postpone until 2019, the full benefit of our residents’ decision to withdraw from the district. If you have any questions about the South Suburban decision or issues going forward please contact Mayor Pro Tem Russell Stewart. Russ has worked tirelessly on this appeal and we all owe him our sincere thanks for his diligent efforts.

Please have a safe and joyous holiday season!
Mike

ACCESSORY STRUCTURE AND RECREATIONAL USE SETBACKS UPDATED FOR R-4 AND R-3A ZONE DISTRICTS

On October 20th, the City Council voted unanimously to update the building setbacks for accessory structures and recreational uses for the R-4 zone district and R-3A zone district’s ½-acre designated lots. The new setbacks are 25 feet from the front property line and 15 feet from the rear and side property lines. The previous setbacks for accessory structures and recreational uses in these two districts were considered more restrictive than those for the other residential zone districts throughout the City and were updated to be consistent with the other districts.

The new setbacks apply to all R-4 zoned lots and R-3A lots between ½ acre and 1 acre in area. R-4 zoned neighborhoods include: Cherry Vale Acres; Cherry Vale Meadows; Cherrydale; Cherry Hills North; Cherry Hills East; Southmoor Vista; and parts of Charlou/Charmont and Mansfield Heights. R-3A zoned neighborhoods include: Buell Mansion and Covington. If you have any questions, please contact the City’s Community Development Department at 303-783-2721.

INSTALLATION OF NEW WIRELESS INFRASTRUCTURE UNDERWAY THROUGHOUT CITY

NewPath Networks LLC is in the process of installing several wireless communication “nodes” throughout the City as part of a larger infrastructure project aimed at boosting cell phone coverage throughout Cherry Hills Village, Greenwood Village and Centennial. Each node includes a series of small antennas on utility poles or light poles and equipment pedestals at the base of the poles. There are currently ten nodes being installed in Cherry Hills Village. The network of antennas will operate as a repeater system to boost calls throughout the City. The network can be utilized by multiple wireless carriers and NewPath Networks has reported to the City that they currently have agreements in place with AT&T Wireless and Verizon, and are in negotiations with additional carriers. It is anticipated that the system will be operating in Cherry Hills Village by the end of the year.

HOLIDAY HOME & SHOPPING SAFETY TIPS

Beware! Crime can happen at any time, day or night. It is important for homeowners to take steps to deter crime. It is also important for neighbors to watch out for each other. Vigilance is imperative. Below are tips each household can easily implement.

HOLIDAY CRIME PREVENTION TIPS:

- ALWAYS set the burglar alarm – even when leaving home for only a short period of time. An alarm may chase off a burglar before he gets inside your home.
- Lock all doors and windows.
- Burglars like to work quickly. Use locks on all doors and windows.
- Beware! Report all suspicious vehicles and persons immediately.
- Holiday mail: empty your mailbox every day to prevent mail theft. Take outgoing mail to the post office for maximum safety.
- Do not display your Christmas gifts through your living room windows.

HOLIDAY SHOPPING SAFETY:

- Park and lock your car under a light. Use well traveled and well populated areas. Park near the store entrance, if possible.
- If you observe people loitering around your car, return to the store and request help from the store staff.
- Lock your car as soon as you are inside.
- Keep your packages out of sight – place them in the trunk
- Carry only the credit cards and cash needed for your planned purchases.
- Walk with confidence and stay aware of your surroundings.
- Keep your purse close to your body to deter theft.
- Keep your children close and teach them to go to store employees for help if you become separated.

GOING ON A HOLIDAY TRIP?

- Have your mail held by the post office while you are away.
- Stop newspaper delivery while you are gone.
- Leave lights on automatic timers.
- Contact the police department and request a “House Watch” while you are away.
- Ask a neighbor or friend to stop by your house periodically; have them open and close blinds, turn on different lights.
- Let your neighbors know when you are leaving and when you plan to return home and if you are expecting anybody at your house while you are away.
- Burglars desire easy access to your home. Eliminate hiding places by ensuring all trees and shrubs are trimmed around doors and windows.
- Exterior lights with motion sensors help protect your property.
- Don’t place the fact you are gone on your voice mail.
- Store jewelry and other valuables in a safe hiding place, such as a safety deposit box.

CHRISTMAS TREE RECYCLING DATES:

The City will be accepting Christmas trees from residents for recycling from December 26, 2009 thru January 15, 2010. 2009 FINANCIAL UPDATE

In the previous Crier we reported that the financial forecast to year end 2009 showed a possible shortfall of revenues to expenditures. Staff is pleased to report that with the Mayor and Council's support and staff's hard work, the current forecast to year end is positive. Building permit revenues and interest revenues remain down. In order to make up the forecasted shortfall, many cuts to expenditures such as trainings, uniforms, the City's employee Holiday party and some small equipment purchases were made. In addition, the City postponed until future years a couple concrete projects in the capital budget. Staff is monitoring the budget very closely and will continue to make possible and necessary cuts to meet or exceed budget in 2009.

THE ANNUAL SCIENCE FAIR AT CHERRY HILLS VILLAGE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL A HUGE SUCCESS!

The annual Science Fair at Cherry Hills Village Elementary School was held Wednesday, November 18th through the 20th in the school gymnasium. A record 184 projects representing the work of 235 students were presented for judging. Each student scientist presented his/her project to a pair of community judges. Projects were evaluated based on the quality of the investigation to defend a claim (hypothesis) regarding a question each student had about their surroundings. Over 70 community judges gathered for the event. "We are fortunate to live in a community where so many people are interested and excited to support these young students! We have many community members who make a point to return year after year to be judges," reported Sherry Sargent, a community representative on the school's PTCO Board and a long time recruiter of community judges.

Debby Sycamore, a geologist in the energy field for more than 25 years and a science fair judge for the first time, stressed the importance of nurturing scientific curiosity in young students, "I personally believe that encouraging and establishing a strong foundation in scientific inquiry by the time a child reaches 3rd grade to be important if not critical to success. Regardless of career path, that process of deliberate thought and curiosity will serve the child and future adult well. It is discouraging to see the downward trend in numbers of students entering the sciences. Where will the next generation of science teachers and scientists come from? Our nation, not to mention this planet, will benefit from more inquiring minds working together to solve challenges known and yet to be known."

In addition to the individual projects, the kindergarten and second grade classes conducted in-class experiments with each student having an opportunity to make a prediction and then test that prediction with a controlled experiment. In the kindergarten classes, the students were asked to predict what would happen to a raw egg (Humpty Dumpty) dropped to either the tile floor or a pillow. The results were "egg-specially" dramatic.

The Science Fair has been a long tradition at Cherry Hills Village Elementary School. This year, the school's Accountability Committee consisting of teachers, parents and community representatives chose science to be the focus of a three-year academic goal for the School Improvement Plan. While the school has been fortunate to have a dedicated Science Teacher, Judy Bogart, there is an increased effort to blend the science curriculum into regular classroom instruction. This is being accomplished through additional training and coordination between Judy Bogart and classroom teachers.

Preparing a science fair project is a significant undertaking for most students and often requires the support of a parent or other family members. To help students and their parents understand what is involved, the school hosted three events to "de-mystify" the scientific process. The first event was a Science Night in October. Students and their families were invited to circulate through 4 stations staffed by high school students demonstrating experiments, talking about the investigative process and inviting students to participate. In late October and early November those same high school students hosted Saturday workshops for students to drop-in for help on their science fair projects. The workshops were well received. The high school students, all of whom had attended Cherry Hills Village Elementary and participated in the science fair for one or more years, became trusted mentors. "It was fascinating to watch how the high school mentors were able to engage the younger students in conversation and problem solving," explained Jennifer Allen, a former CHVE parent and community representative on the school's PTCO Board. "I hope the mentoring program will continue to build. The high school students receive community service hours and the opportunity to share their accumulated knowledge with younger students. Even more importantly, science becomes "cool" in the eyes of younger students when they are receiving help from high school students who are not only smart but also play high school sports and are fun to be around." This year's mentors are: from Regis High School, Joe Bierne, Christopher Bierne, Connor Lester and Grant Warren; from Cherry Creek High School, Kelly Allen; and from Kent Denver, Carolyn Allen, Lacy Kleinschmidt and Colby White.

The Science Fair was a true community effort. An example of this was the traffic management on the 18th. In the past, parents delivering students with their project presentation boards and the arrival of judges has created traffic gridlock. This year the added constraint of gas line construction staging on Meade Lane threatened to make the judges arrival and parking impossible. Thanks to the help of Eric Ensey, CHV City Manager, Sergeant Jake Campbell of the CHV police, the parking lot traffic management of several elementary school dads under the direction of Rob Eber, the student council members who assisted in carrying project boards from cars to the gym, and the willingness of school teachers, staff and judges to carpool or park elsewhere and walk, the traffic moved smoothly and the busy morning activities ran on schedule. Congratulations and thanks to all!

HOLIDAY TREE LIGHTING FUN FOR ALL!

The evening of December 4th was bitterly cold, but even so, many residents turned out for the 2nd annual tree lighting ceremony in front of the Village Center. To keep the crowds happy while they waited for the tree to be lit and Santa, Kent Denver students entertained with dancing and singing; a face painter decorated happy faces; and a balloon sculptor created penguins, swords, and teddy bears in the requested colors. Attendees crowded around several large container fires which provided welcome warmth. City manager Eric Ensey and animal control officer Michelle Edwardson dished out hot cider, hot chocolate and chili along with cookies. Michelle was costumed as one of Santa's elves. Spotted enjoying the scene were Mayor Mike Wozniak and former Mayor Jeff Welborn (with grandson, Ben), and Councilmembers Klasina VanderWerf, Mark Griffin and wife Janis, and Russell Stewart with wife Mary and family.

A good time was had by all especially after Santa arrived by tractor to wish residents a happy holiday. The evening ended with a hayride down Meade Lane. Thanks to the City, PT&R, and residents for making this annual holiday event a fun way to gather and greet each other at the beginning of this special season of the year.

PASSINGS

The Village sends its condolences to the families of two long time Village residents who left their marks here - and helped contribute to making our community a better place. They will be missed.

Roland Wilson passed away after a long illness on October 22nd at age 83. He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Ginny, a daughter, Wendy, 2 sons, Kris and Eric, 10 grandchildren, and a nephew, Stan .

Roland was one of the three founding members of the Village Club and was responsible for the fact that the stone building was not torn down; over the years he was very active in the club and with its members.

He grew up in Denver, and graduated from East High School and DU's school of architecture. He served in the Navy during World War II in the South Pacific; in 1957 he started his own architecture practice. Over the course of his career he designed over 130 multi-story buildings.

Jim Muhm passed away on December 1st at age 84. He is survived by his wife, Jean Arthur, daughters Kathy Muhm and Sue Weingardt, and a son, Bill.

For many years, Jim was a committed member of the Parks and Trails Committee and was the force behind the accurate cataloging and numbering of every trail in the Village. He was not only devoted to the trails and the trail system, but his friend and neighbor, Klasina VanderWerf, noted "He was something of a guardian of the trails as well. He made sure that he walked the entire system at least once a year to see where fences needed mending or maintenance, and he always carried a plastic grocery bag so that he could pick up any litter he came across. His vision of the trail system was to continue to add connections to it so that everyone in the Village could have access and enjoy all of the sights and sounds that go along with the trail experience."

Jim was also the lead editor of the book "High on Country, A Narrative History of Cherry Hills Village."
