2013 BARN TOUR HUGE SUCCESS!

Thunder, everyone's favorite equine mascot, made a special appearance at this year's Cherry Hills Village Barn Tour. To the delight of fans young and old, Thunder's owner and fellow Villager, Sharon Magness Blake, far right, along with barn owners Ken and Trish Green, hosted a photo session with the Denver Broncos' mascot which was a fundraiser for the Land Preserve. See page 13 for more about the event and for an overview of the many hard workers and generous supporters of the barn tour.

HIGH LINE CANAL IRRIGATION PROJECT

Did you know the City has entered into an Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA) with the Denver Water Board to install a test section of irrigation along the High Line Canal? This project is the first step in working to ensure the future of the tree canopy on the trail as water running in the canal itself becomes more and more scarce. This is just one of the many ideas that are being explored through the High Line Canal Working Group. The City is a member of the Working Group that was formed through Arapahoe County with the enhancement and preservation of the High Line Canal Trail at the core of its mission. The group consists of elected and appointed officials from local entities throughout Arapahoe County that are bisected by the High Line. Officials from Douglas County, Adams County, the City and County of Denver and other interested entities including Denver Water are also involved in the process.

Because the Canal is essentially a liner dam, it becomes problematic to install a watering system that has the potential to harm the Canal and expose the structure to undue stresses. For this reason the two entities have agreed to a 1000' test section from Belleview Avenue north. The system has been specifically designed for installation next to the High Line Canal Trail and includes an under drain system to remove any water in the event of a break in the system. Additionally, there are safety valves in the system that will shut off if there is a break in the system, and a master valve that takes the pressure out of the system when it is not in use.

The system will be funded and operated by Cherry Hills Village. City Crews installed the test section in September, and have also planted a number of the trees that the system is servicing. The water is being delivered via an existing irrigation tap that is owned by the City. If the test is successful, the City and High Line Canal Working Group intend to work with Denver Water to possibly expand the system on a larger scale.

A MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

Mayor Doug Tisdale

Think Globally; Shop Locally. In our last Message we asked you to “Think Globally,” pointing out the numerous partnerships we have forged with other cities in the Denver Region as we work together collaboratively to improve the economic climate by encouraging global businesses to look to Colorado for relocation. In this issue we would like to encourage you to “Shop Locally!”

The Shoppes at Cherry Hills. Cherry Hills Village takes up about 6.5 square miles and is populated by about 6,000 people who live in about 2,000 homes, along with eight churches, four clubs, three schools ... and six small businesses. The Shoppes at Cherry Hills are located at 1400 East Hampden, sitting on the southeast corner of Lafayette and Old Hampden. Located as they are, between Old Hampden and the US 285/Hampden Bypass, many people think they are actually in Englewood. This understandable confusion was exacerbated by the fact that the street signs at the corner of Lafayette and Hampden used to be green Englewood street signs. We are happy to report that our Public Works Department changed out these street signs this summer at the Mayor’s direction. We now have our classic red Cherry Hills street signs at that corner. (Contrary to a wide-spread rumor, we do not have any immediate plans to rename that small segment of Lafayette St. as “Little Rodeo Drive.”) And very soon we will be adding a Cherry Hills Village City Limits sign on the corner (with thanks to the landlord for financial support in putting that up). Let’s look at each of our six Cherry Hills businesses.

Caribou Coffee. One of the most vibrant and vital elements of our shopping district is Caribou Coffee. It serves as one of the “anchor stores” for The Shoppes and offers not only great coffee and other imaginative drinks, but also a restful and welcoming seating area where patrons may have meetings, work on their computers with free Wi-Fi and plenty of convenient outlets on the perimeter, read the paper in comfortable chairs in front of the fireplace, or just chill. An outdoor seating area affords some fresh air and the opportunity to watch the traffic flow by on Highway 285. Caribou is open from 5:00 AM (6:00 AM on Saturday and Sunday) until 9:00 PM (10:00 PM on Friday and Saturday) and is always busy. An attentive and engaging staff will make you feel welcome, whether you just drop in to grab a cup, or choose to stay for an extended period. The sandwiches and baked goods are very appetizing. Your Mayor conducts a lot of Village business there – it served as the “headquarters” for negotiating the gift of The Alan Hutto Memorial Commons for almost a year! Hint: Remember to read and answer the daily Trivia Question to save on the cost of your beverage!

Pino’s Pizzeria and Wine Bar. A well-kept secret is that we have an award-winning Italian chef with his own restaurant in Cherry Hills Village! Pino’s food is inspired by his memories of growing up in Italy as a boy – from the spicy soppressata of Calabria to the porcini of Toscano and the pesto of Liguria. Pino started in the family rosticceria and has been the chef for celebrities, personalities and dignitaries. (Check out some of the photos hung on the walls, including one of all the South Metro Mayors!) Pino is passionate about classic, simple, traditional Italian cooking - just like Mamma makes. Pino’s is meant to be a place where you greet your neighbors, talk with old friends and make new ones. This is a place for celebrations, laughter, the energy of life. Their space is intimate, casual and family-friendly, with sidewalk tables available where you can eat, weather-permitting. And there’s a great diverse wine list available! Hint: Be sure to check out their Happy Hour specials. Some of the best deals in the Denver Metro region!

Vino Vino. This local wine shop is passionate about their libations! Wine does not have to be pretentious or shrouded in mystery, it should be fun and approachable. Owner and resident wine expert Tim Martin is in store to help find the perfect wine for you. He has carefully selected products that best fit his philosophy: that when things are produced in small quantities they are often of a higher quality and offer a more authentic experience. They also offer an ever changing selection of locally made Colorado products as well as wider national and international array of liquor, wine and beer. Hint: Vino Vino has twice weekly wine tastings and a “Wine of the Month Club.” Perfect for the upcoming holiday season.

One2One Studio Salon. One2One is a personal boutique salon. Their services are devoted to your unique individual needs in an environment that affords relaxation, rejuvenation and replenishment. Founder Richard Armao has created a personal space that is as much yours as it is his. Your experience is designed to be a relaxing getaway from your daily stresses, where they will provide personalized design schemes through the highest professional advanced creativity available in the salon industry today. Personal attention and consistent quality are the key elements of their service, as they strive to build lasting relationships with their clients. Hint: They have regular artist gatherings, where new art is displayed and proceeds often are donated to local charities.

Continental Dry Cleaners. Tired of spending $11.00 to get a tie dry-cleaned? Continental Cleaners was originally designed to provide fast friendly service at a reasonable price. Their low price high volume concept was pioneered in Southern California in the mid 1960’s and has spread across the Front Range in Colorado. This independently owned and operated store uses new state-of-the-art dry cleaning equipment that is said to meet or exceed

PUBLIC WORKS SURVEY

The City of Cherry Hills Village has contracted with Norris Design to conduct a thorough study and to make recommendations to City Council as to the future of its Public Works facilities and operations.

A community survey was recently conducted by Pioneer Marketing Research as one of the tools to help determine what the most feasible and economical solution for improving the Public Works facilities might be.

The three options being considered are 1. improving the current site 2. relocating the entire facility or 3. relocating a portion of the Public Works operations. A Community Meeting was held on October 24th at St. Mary's Academy to allow residents to provide more input.

The City will continue to work with Norris Design on a comprehensive report that will be presented to City Council in November of 2013. The report and survey results will be posted on the City's website after that meeting. The City would like to thank those citizens who participated in the survey.

VILLAGE ADOPTS UPDATED BUILDING CODES

The City recently adopted the 2012 International Building Code Series. Adopting up-to-date building codes helps to ensure that appropriate safety standards are met throughout the Village and the highest construction standards are in place. It is the mission of the Cherry Hills Village Building Division to ensure the safety of all buildings and structures in the Village through careful review of construction documents and consistent on-site inspections.

The International Building Code Series is updated every three years to ensure that new technology and construction practices are incorporated. Starting October 7th, all permits for new construction must comply with the following codes.

- 2012 International Building Code
- 2012 International Residential Code
- 2012 International Fire Code
- 2012 International Plumbing Code
- 2012 International Fuel Gas Code
- 2012 International Mechanical Code
- 2012 International Energy Conservation Code
- 2011 National Electrical Code

For more information on building permit requirements you may call the City's Community Development Department at 303-783-2721 or visit the City's website www.cherryhillsvillage.com/building.aspx.

FLOODING IN THE VILLAGE

While the Village was fortunate not to have had any major flood events over the last month, as compared to other areas of the State, there are many properties in the Village susceptible to flooding. In fact, there are approximately 200 properties in Cherry Hills Village that are covered, at least in part, by FEMA designated floodplains. These designated floodplains include the drainageways of Little Dry Creek, Greenwood Gulch, Blackmer Gulch and Quincy Gulch. In addition to providing wildlife habitat and community amenities, these drainageways play a vital role in controlling water that flows through Cherry Hills Village.

The City continually works with the Urban Drainage and Flood Control District to reduce the threat of flooding by evaluating and planning for the possible impacts of floods in these drainageways. The threat of flood, however, cannot be eliminated. Therefore, it is important to become aware of what to do in the event of a flash flood.

FLASH FLOOD FUNDAMENTALS

- A flash flood is typically caused by sudden, excessive rainfall that sends a river, stream or other body of water rapidly out of its banks. Often this occurs in a short amount of time, only several hours or even less.
- Flash floods can also be caused by ice jams on rivers in conjunction with winter or spring thaw, or occasionally even a dam break.
- The water may rise rapidly and may be powerful enough to sweep vehicles away, roll boulders into roadways, uproot trees, level buildings, and drag bridges off their piers.
- In the western United States, the soil is generally dry, sandy and unable to absorb large amounts of water. Heavy rains can quickly fill dry fill dry stream and river beds, sending torrents of water downstream.
- Fast-moving water is extremely powerful and dangerous. The results can be deadly to anyone in the water's path. Just 6 inches of rapidly moving flood water can knock a person down and 2 feet of water can float a large vehicle.

WHAT TO DO IN CASE OF A FLASH FLOOD

- There may be no time for a warning to be issued. You may have only seconds to escape. It could be a life-and-death decision for you and your family. If you suspect a flash flood is about to happen, immediately climb to higher ground.
- Avoid walking through any floodwaters. If it is moving swiftly, even water 6 inches deep can sweep you off your feet.
- If you are in a car and you come to a flooded area, turn around and go another way. If your car stalls, abandon it immediately and climb to higher ground. Many deaths have resulted from attempts to move stalled vehicles.
- Remember, it does not have to be raining for a flash flood to occur. Some of the most dangerous floods originate many miles away.

For further information or to find out if your property is in a designated floodplain, please contact the Community Development Department at 303-783-2721.

South Philly Cheese Steak. The idea here is simple, just like the décor and the atmosphere: authentic east coast hoagies, cheese steaks, Water Ice and Tastykakes. The décor matches the Philadelphia theme—posters, banners and billboards celebrating Philadelphia and its teams and schools (alongside, of course, banners for the Broncos, the Rockies and the Avalanche. Two big screen TVs broadcast sports for enthusiasts. East Coast foodies looking for a touch of home will find their fill at South Philly Cheese Steak. Another outdoor eating area here offers fair weather options for diners. The staff is very helpful and the Manager (Joan) is extremely friendly and engaging, not to mention hard working! Hint: Free Wi-Fi is provided.

OTHER VILLAGE MATTERS

KCHV-TV Update. We were delighted to hear from the former Mayor of Breckenridge (now a resident of the Village) that he happened to stumble across the new offerings on KCHV-TV recently. It seems he was trying to tune his TV to channel 2 and must have hit the number “2” twice. He ended up watching channel 22, KCHV-TV. He viewed some of our segments, which now include (among others) the story of Quincy Farm and Cat Anderson, courtesy of the Cherry Hills Land Preserve, and the winners of the Mayor’s Competition for student-produced videos celebrating the High Line Canal Trail. Channel 22 includes a live CNN News Crawl at the bottom of the screen, local weather conditions and many other items. New content is being added weekly. If you have Comcast cable, please be sure to watch YOUR Channel 22.

A Call to Our Schools! We repeat our call to Cherry Hills Elementary, Kent Denver School, St. Mary’s Academy, Cherry Creek High School and West Middle School to submit their plays, concerts and athletic events for broadcast on KCHV-TV. This is YOUR government cable channel and we want to be responsive to YOU, so if you have additional ideas, please share them with us!

Please remember in your thoughts, meditations and prayers the many people whose lives were affected by the disastrous flooding in Colorado this September. If you are in a position to help, please consider doing so. But in any event, hold these people in your hearts.

Enjoy the autumn weather and let’s continue to cheer on our own Cherry Hills Broncos (whose owner, coach, EVP for Football Operations, quarterback and many others all live in Cherry Hills – the #1 Best Suburb of America to Live In)!

CHERRY HILLS VILLAGE ART COMMISSION ■

The Cherry Hills Village Art Commission is buzzing with energy and excitement. This is our second year as a functioning group and many of you have voiced interest in the project. We are extremely grateful for your support. There is so much good news to share. The Inca Street Artists opened the first art show in the community room of our Joint Public Safety Facility on October 5th. Gay Warren worked tirelessly preparing the room to handle that show. The art show will hang until November 19th. Viewing hours are from 9am - 4pm weekdays, depending on the availability of the Community Room. Call 303-761-8711 for information. The exhibit includes oil, acrylic, pastel, and watercolor paintings as well as bronze and clay sculptures. Works will be for sale. Artists represented include Susan Behrendt, Dwight Davidson, Sharon Detrick, Barbara Kloehn, Arlene Kunz, Donna Lovely, Leise Tetherow, Tim Tetherow, and Gay Warren. Contact Gay Warren at 303-589-4700 for further information about the art show. Hopefully many more local groups will use this space to show and sell their art.

You may have noticed the Village snow plows being decorated by the three Village schools: Cherry Hills Village Elementary, Kent Denver and St. Mary's Academy. Ralph Mason, Street Superintendent, came up with the idea of having our school children decorate the plows. Teresa Harbaugh contacted the schools and coordinated the project. As your streets get cleared this winter, notice the art on the plows!

A dedication for the Flying Crane sculpture done by artist Reven Swanson was held September 18th on site at Happy Canyon and Quincy followed by a reception at the home of Doug Smooke. Just a reminder that this is a loan piece and will be on display for a minimum of a year, but it is for sale. If you are interested in purchasing this piece or others by Reven, please contact Laura Smith, City clerk, at lsmith@cherryhillsvillage.com or at the Village Center for artist contact information.

And finally, very very exciting news for the Arts Commission....long time Village resident, Peter Roosevelt, has volunteered to hold an art show- sale November 22 and 23 in the Community Room. His art will on display until December 12th. He generously agreed to donate 100 % of the profits to the CHV Art Commission. We are extremely grateful to him and hope many of you will attend the event and purchase his beautiful oil landscape paintings. Please see the invitation to his reception and read more about him throughout this issue of the Crier. We are so fortunate to live in Cherry Hills Village and have generous residents willing to share their talents and financial contributions making this such a special community. On behalf of everyone on the Art Commission, we are excited about the infinite possibilities for public art in Cherry Hills Village. Art Commission members: Ann Polumbus, Chair; Teresa Harbaugh, Doug Smooke, Gay Warren, and Klasina VanderWerf, City Council Representative

DUKE BEARDSLEY DAY

The Beardsley Family in front of painting "High Line Regulars"

On October 4th, Cherry Hills Village Elementary School teachers Jessica Yoffe and Murriel Gully brought their third and fourth grade classes to the Joint Public Safety Facility to celebrate the dedication of Duke Beardsley's four panel piece, High Line Regulars. The program began with Georgia and Sawyer Beardsley coming up front to announce that these paintings were done by their father, Duke Beardsley, and they were a gift to the Village given by themselves, Georgia and Sawyer! The children led the group in a pledge to the flag followed by Mayor Doug Tisdale talking to the classes about the importance of Community. Mayor Tisdale said that we all develop our own special talents. In this case we are celebrating the artistic talents of Duke Beardsley. Mayor Tisdale went on to say that when we have special abilities it is nice to share them as gifts and this is exactly what Duke and his family have done. Duke was next to speak and he explained how he created four panels filled with horses eating along the High Line Canal. The background color red was chosen to represent Cherry Hills Village as well as working artistically in his paintings. The students asked marvelous questions. "What was your inspiration for this painting?" "How long did it take?" "How many brushes do you have?" and even down to "What size brushes did you use for this painting?" Remember, these are third and fourth graders!

Finally the dedication concluded with Chief of Police Michelle Tovrea talking to the kids about the role of the Police in our Cherry Hills Village Community. She emphasized that she needed TRUST from the children and their families to effectively run the police department. Again, the kids asked great questions. One boy asked, "what does it feel like to wear handcuffs?" Instantly, Chief Tovrea replied, "get up here" and put the handcuffs on the child. That is an experience he will never forget.

Please stop by and see these paintings. They are located in the front entrance hall of the Joint Public Safety Building, across Meade Lane from the Village Center. A huge THANK YOU to the entire Beardsley family for this incredible gift.

CHERRY HILLS VILLAGE ART COMMISSION ■

LET IT SNOW! LET IT SNOW! LET IT SNOW!

As soon as the first snow flies, be on the lookout for three decorative “mobile art murals.”

The young artists and art teachers of Cherry Hills Elementary, Kent Denver and St. Mary’s Academy in collaboration with our Public Works Department, and organized by the CHV Public Art Commission are excited to bring “fresh local” ART into the community through our First Annual Paint-A-Snow-Plow-Project.

The project was inspired by our Public Works Street Superintendent, Ralph Mason, who had three plow blades prepped and painted white, like a blank canvases, and delivered one to each school early September for the young artists to let their inner Van Gogh shine. The mural surface of the snow plow blade measures 10 feet wide by 17 to 26 inches high. Art teachers, Tara Roberts, Jon Fortmiller and Cheri Buxman devised a painting plan for their art classes to complete by October 1st, when the newly painted plows would return to the Village Center to get a seal coat from Public Works and be ready to go to work with the special touch of our very own Cherry Hills kids and their school spirit.

Art in Public Places takes on MOBILITY and a new meaning through this creative experience for kids within the community, yet “outside of the classroom,” and will be visible and fun to see all winter long.

SNOW REMOVAL IN CHERRY HILLS VILLAGE

SPEAKING OF SNOWPLOWS...

Unlike most Cities in the metro area, Cherry Hills Village plows all of its streets during snow events. The department has developed a snow removal plan to keep the streets safe and accessible during periods of snow. Streets will be plowed and sanded according to established priorities. Priorities are set based upon traffic volume, public safety and access to emergency facilities and schools. The goal and intent of the City is to provide timely, efficient and cost effective winter maintenance and snow removal on all of the City maintained streets.

The City of Cherry Hills Village's policy is to have crews begin snow removal on the "mains" once accumulation has begun. The "mains" consist of Quincy Avenue, Colorado Boulevard, Holly Street from Belleview Avenue to Quincy Avenue, Clarkson Street, Mansfield Avenue, Oxford Avenue from Dahlia Avenue east and Happy Canyon Road., a map is available online at <http://cherryhillsvillage.com/snowremove.aspx>. If the snowfall starts after normal business hours, it is up to the discretion of the police officers on duty to contact the on-call plow drivers to begin snow removal operations. If a storm is eminent and conditions allow, the Public Works Department will pre-treat all known troubled areas with magnesium chloride prior to any accumulation of snow. Once snow begins to accumulate and temperatures drop, the City will begin applying a salt sand mixture to the roads, if necessary.

Local "residential" streets will only be plowed if more than 3" of accumulation has occurred during a single storm event. Public Works strives to have all snowfall greater than 3" cleared from all City streets within 12 hours from the end of a storm event. Please remember that the more it snows, the longer it will take crews to plow the entire City. All City plow drivers strive to keep as much snow as possible out of driveways and away from mailboxes. Please be aware that it is the resident's responsibility to clear the snow from in front of their driveway and mailbox to ensure mail delivery.

There are several ways that residents can help with the snow removal effort. First, be aware of the snowplows working in your area and where you are driving. Be careful not to follow too closely or to block their path. If possible, let the snowplow pass before you reach the intersection. Second, as you shovel your walks and driveways do not place any of the snow in the street. This can cause problems with snow removal operations and can be a hazard for other drivers. Third, when it is snowing or a snowstorm has been forecast please remove your vehicle from the street. If vehicles are left in the street, the plows must plow around them. This slows the snow removal operation, increases the chance of accidents and will increase the amount of snow that you need to shovel in order to move your vehicle.

The City of Cherry Hills Village also removes snow from the City's system of hard surface trails. This includes the trails on Quincy Avenue, Colorado Boulevard and Holly Street as well as the sidewalks on all Colorado Department of Transportation (CDOT) roads (which include Hampden Avenue, University Boulevard, and Belleview Avenue). All other sidewalks in the City must be shoveled by the residents whose property abuts these facilities. There are very few sidewalks within the City of Cherry Hills Village.

Please remember that Hampden Avenue, University Boulevard, and Belleview Avenue are maintained by CDOT. The City of Cherry Hills Village Public Works Department will only plow snow and apply sand to these streets if requested by the Police Department for emergency and safety reasons.

RIGHT-OF-WAY SNOW REMOVAL / DAMAGE POLICY

The following is the City's policy regarding structures, which are located within the City's rights-of-way, and are damaged during snow removal operations performed by the Public Works Department:

Damage to private improvements in public rights-of-way during snow removal operations is the responsibility of the homeowner to repair or replace. The Public Works Department will do all it can to conduct operations in a manner to not disturb such improvements.

The actual right-of-way in most parts of the City is greater than the width of the street. In most cases, the City has an additional five to ten feet of right-of-way. Most mail boxes and driveway entrance features are located in this area and are governed by this policy. A site improvement survey is the only way to know if a resident has constructed improvement in the City's right-of-way.

Additionally, you may not have private contractors remove snow from public streets or deposit snow from private property onto public streets. Consequently this is the cause of a majority of the damage to private structures in the public right-of-way. If your contractor is caught doing either of the proceeding actions, Code Enforcement may issue them a summons to appear in Municipal Court. Please help us keep our streets safe; please remind your contractors of these rules.

PETER ROOSEVELT

Peter Roosevelt was born in New York City in 1933 and grew up there and in Oyster Bay Long Island. He came West to attend the University of Colorado where he studied Geology and has worked in that field ever since. Pete and Midge met at CU and married in 1956 in Kansas City. They built their home in Cherry Hills Village in 1960, where they still live.

Pete has been interested in drawing since high school and in 1980 took up "outdoor painting from nature"—Plein Air Oil Painting is his style and medium. His mentor and teacher is Ned Jacob, a popular and well known regional painter. As a board member of the Art Students League, Pete was an early and enthusiastic supporter. He was represented in Denver by Elizabeth Shlosser Gallery, and has exhibited his paintings around the country.

Cherry Hills Village has always been important to Pete and Midge, with Pete serving on CHV City Council and as Police Commissioner. They have raised four children here and enjoyed the trails and open spaces for fifty-three years.

All of the paintings for his show have been donated to the Cherry Hills Village Arts Commission, and 100% of the art sales proceeds will go directly to the CHVAC Public Art Fund. This is Pete's way to give back to the community.

VILLAGERS ENJOY BARN TOUR - A CELEBRATION OF OUR RURAL CHARACTER!

A beautiful Fall day in the Village greeted the 3rd Annual Cherry Hills Village Barn Tour on Sunday, Oct. 6. Villagers enjoyed a festive community day featuring 3 open barns, tours of the new Police and Fire Station and a robust farmers market showcasing the home-grown talents of Village artists, crafters and gardeners.

Festivities kicked off on Saturday night with a lively, western-style Barn Party featuring live music and a silent art auction celebrating works from local artists including Villagers Duke Beardsley and Kent Lemon, held at the Rady Barn. The event benefits the Cherry Hills Land Preserve (CHLP), a non-profit organization dedicated to preserving natural open lands in Cherry Hills Village through leadership, stewardship, education and advocacy.

Thanks to the outpouring of support from Villagers, sponsors, donors and volunteers, this year's barn events successfully met fundraising goals enabling the CHLP to continue its conservation efforts in our community.

Event sponsors included: Fuller Sotheby's Realty brokers including Nancy and Fred Wolfe, Casey Miller, Lori Drew, SaraBeth Jones, Janet Kritzer, Susie Dews, Ann and John Ludwig, Linda, Tre and Josh Behr; Steele Street Bank & Trust; Natural Grocers and Applejack Wine & Spirits. Additionally, students from Cherry Hills Village Elementary School's Reach Out Club donated over $500 in lemonade and cookie sales.

Event Committee included Ann Clark, Klasina VanderWerf, Lori Autterson, Stephanie Blucher, Connie Brown, Lisa Gould, Harriet LaMair, Karen Barsch, Kimberlee Berman, Lisa Duke, Cindy Overhardt, Lynn Kelly and Sally Scott.

A big thank you to Barn Party hosts and featured barn owners Katy and Paul Rady, as well as to Village barn owners Trish and Ken Green and Gayle and Steve Mooney and to Police Chief Michelle Tovrea for generously leaving their barn doors open!

For more photos from the Barn Party and Tour 'like' the Cherry Hills Land Preserve's Facebook page; to learn more about the organization please visit chvlp.com.
